

Sushan Alley: riotous, exotic and just what Purim fun is supposed to be!

ON MONDAY NIGHT 13 March, Shushan Alley sprung up fully formed in Slome Hall, followed by a spectacular Shushan costume parade and 'that 80s Spiel' you always hoped to experience!

A huge crowd of Temple Beth Israel members and friends were joined by excited newcomers who had heard about our Purim spectacular and wanted to experience it all themselves. The carnival met all expectations, the Shushan parade, with masters of ceremony Rabbi Gersh 'bad boy' Zylberman and Rabbi Rayna 'jester for all seasons' Gevurtz, gave the Paris fashion parades a run for their money and the Spiel...well, what can one say about the spiel? Whatchoo talkin' 'bout, anyway?

Our grateful thanks for their industrious efforts and magical genius of Amelia Kalifa and her able band of helpers including Steven Krygger, Alec, Katie and Tyler Sherman, Yehudit Koadlow, Nelly Vagana, Carolyn Whitzman, Sharon Ladowsky, Sheryl Topol, Tara Kornhauser, Kathy Kaplan, Miriam Matthews and Dion Rudzki, Nicole Brown and Jamie Brown, Alex Harrison, Ramelle Lewis, Tammy Cohen, Jeremy Kingsley, Roger and Sue Mendelson, Brian Samuel, Jenny and David Arkles, Rosy Matthews and Jill Harris.

'Viva Argentina' fundraiser a Netzer success

NETZER'S FUNDRAISER, VIVA ARGENTINA, on 19 February raised much needed funds for the Argentinian Jewish community. In a beautiful garden setting, 300 people enjoyed food and entertainment with a South American theme.

Adam Starr, Luke Howard, Gideon Brazil, Jonathan Zion and Ariel Valent performed tango, salsa, samba and bossa nova. Salsa dance troupe Mojito performed some sizzling numbers. Photographer Emmanuel Santos and Argentinian artist Rocio Garcia donated several of their works. These, plus a travel voucher from Ackerfeld and Goldberg and a glass piece by Ede Horton, were auctioned by Gary Peer.

Over $10 000 was raised, so the Progressive community in Argentina can run Netzer activities for at least two years. Since the economic crisis several years ago, most chanchim who wished to attend camps could not afford the fees, and Netzer Argentina could not provide subsidies. Needless to say, the Argentinian 'Netzerniks' are over the moon about their brighter future.

Thanks to all the people who supported us, especially Vivien and Philip Brass for providing the venue and everyone who came on the night contributed to Viva Argentina! being such a success.

PESACH 5766

TBI Social Justice Group initiative
Mazon Bags and Metcards

The Temple Beth Israel Social Justice Group invite our TBI extended family to participate in either one or two of the following Pesach initiatives:

Metcard Tickets

We are seeking Zone 1, Zone 1/2 & Zone 1/2/3 tickets to be distributed by the Hotham Mission in North Melbourne, for their Asylum Seeker Project. Zone 1/2/3 and Zone 1/2 tickets are the most expensive and are difficult for their clients to buy so are very welcome.

Mazon Bags

These will be available from the TBI office, as well as in the foyer leading into our Sanctuary. These bags are to be filled with non-perishable food provisions and toiletries. The bags will be distributed to Jewish Care and to the Food Bank at the Asylum Seekers Resource Centre.

Your contribution, big or small, will be very much appreciated. Metcards and/ or Mazon Bags can be left at the TBI office any time between now and Pesach.

For further information regarding the above or more information about the activities of the TBI Social Justice Group, please leave your name and phone number at the TBI office, 9510 1488. Dorothy Graff, the SJG convenor will be very happy to return your call.

A Family Haggadah

This Pesach, introduce your family and friends to this phenomenally successful, beautifully produced Progressive family haggadah with a contemporary interpretation by Rabbi John Levi, accompanied by a cookbook of delicious Passover recipes and a CD of the ceremony's ageless songs.

Now available from TBI office:

A boxed set of 6 haggadot, a cookbook and CD for $150.

Additional haggadot purchased with the set at $17 each. Haggadot, CD and cookbook are available separately at $20 each.

Sponsor a Plate for the TBI Communal Seder

If your seder table is full, why not donate $48 to the Temple and we can host someone on your behalf at our communal seder. This will enable us to offer places to those who would otherwise not be able to participate in a seder. Call the Temple on 9510 1488 with your credit card details, or mail a cheque to PO Box 128, St Kilda.

Communal Seder

With Pesach just around the corner I would like to extend an invitation to you to please join us for a fun-filled communal seder on 2nd night Pesach!

Rabbis Levi, Gevurtz and I will be leading the seder together with participation from all who are present. We will sing, recount the story of our exodus from Egypt and eat wonderful Pesach foods.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to be together as a TBI family in celebrating our Jewish festival of freedom. Book early to reserve your seats as space is limited. Wishing you and your family a zissen Pesach!

Rabbi Gevurtz

Led by Rabbis John Levi, Gersh Zylberman & Rayna Gevurtz this seder is structured to ensure all members and friends can participate! Professional catering with all the ritual trimmings!

Adults	$35 members
	$48 non-members
Concession	$25 members
	$38 non-members
Children to 13	$16 members
	$20 non-members

All adult Seder participants must have their own copy of 'A Family Haggadah'. You may wish to share one copy between two people. Seder participants may pre-purchase Haggadot at the special price of $12 per copy (normally $20 each when purchased separately).

Bookings will only be accepted with payment by Wednesday 5 April. For information contact the Temple office on 9510 1488.

ARZA will be the largest bloc in the US delegation of the Zionist Congress in Jerusalem

The Association of Reform Zionists of America will comprise the largest segment of the US contingent to the upcoming World Zionist Congress, to be held in Jerusalem in June. ARZA will send 55 of the 145 delegates after its slate won 38% of the vote in recent balloting among American Jewish organizations. Close to two-thirds of the American delegates will represent non-Orthodox religious streams (Reform, Conservative and Reconstructionist).

'ARZA's clear victory in this election strengthens the hands of all of us who believe that a pluralistic, democratic, Jewish state of Israel represents the highest expression of Zionist ideals,' said ARZA president Rabbi Stanley M. Davids. 'American Reform Zionists now can be expected to pursue this vision with even greater effectiveness and with broader support than ever before, in full partnership with the Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism and with our Reform Zionist partners throughout the world.'

Rabbi Eric Yoffie, president of the Union for Reform Judaism, said, 'We take great pride in the success of the Reform movement in the just-concluded WZO election. It demonstrates that our message – love of Israel, devotion to Zionist ideals and commitment to policies of moderation and religious pluralism in the Jewish state – has become the dominant voice of Zionism.'

Balloting for the Australian delegation will be completed by the end of April; we hope every one who has registered now vote: L. ARZA. If in doubt, call Ian Samuel on 9563 6336.

Open Mike

No, not really.
But we are offering you the opportunity to express your musical self!

*Do you like to sing in the shower?
Would you like to know the words
to the Shabbat songs?
Is one of your favourite parts of the service,
the music?*

If you have answered yes to any of the questions, then we have the choir for you!

Ruach a capella choir provides musical accompaniment for many of our Shabbat services, as well as performing occasionally elsewhere, when the fancy takes us.

Come and sing with Ruach!

Please call the TBI office on 9510 1488 and let us know you want to join us.

We need you!
We want you!
And you know you want us!

Things you should know...

Are you thinking of a bar or bat mitzvah in the next eight years?

Dates for TBI b'nei mitzvah are booked eight years in advance; and educational preparations begin at least three years before the event. If your child is nearing six years of age, it is time to make enquiries for bar or bat mitzvah. Call the Temple on 9510 1488.
