SCROLL OF ECCLESIASTES

מגילת קהלת

Chapter 1:

¹These are the words of Kohelet, son of David, King in Jerusalem. ²"It is all useless, Kohelet said, it is all useless. Everything is useless."³What gain with all your work, with everything that you do under the sun?⁴One generation goes and another generation comes. But the earth always remains the same. ⁵The Sun rises and the sun sets, and glides back to where it rises. ⁶Going to the South, then turning Northward, the wind goes around and around, and on its rounds, the wind comes back. ⁷All rivers flow into the sea. Yet the sea is never full. To the place where they flow, the rivers flow back again. ⁸Everything is exhausting. You can't speak. The eye can't see enough. The ear can't hear enough. ⁹What was is what will be. What has been done is what will be done. There is nothing new under the sun.

Chapter 3:

¹Everything has its moment. There is a time for everything beneath the heavens. ²A time to be born and a time to die. A time to plant and a time to uproot what has been planted. ³A time to kill and a time to heal. A time to tear down and a time to build up. ⁴A time to weep and a time to laugh. A time of mourning and a time of dancing. ⁵A time to throw stones and time to gather stones. A time to embrace and a time to avoid embracing. ⁶There is a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to cast off. ⁷There is a time for ripping and a time for sewing. There is a time to be silent and a time to speak. ⁸There is a time for love and a time for hate. There is a time for war and a time for peace.

MISSION: Temple Beth Israel is a kehilla kedosha (spiritual community) bringing innovation and creativity to Jewish traditions. We provide multiple pathways for our members and friends to enjoy an engagement with Progressive Judaism that enhances their lives through spiritual enrichment, learning and community. We are guided by principles of egalitarianism and respect for others. We are inspired to continually develop and grow and to provide a spiritual home for all who wish to embrace our values. Temple Beth Israel acknowledges that we are assembled on land whose traditional custodians are the people of the Kulin Nation.
